The most powerful resource any PC user can have.

The world of Personal Computing is changing every day. The Source gives you a way to find out about new developments almost as they happen. You can get answers to questions on new software, hardware and PC applications for your business or home in written form, quickly and easily.

Want the latest technical information on software like AppleWorks, dBase III® or Wordperfect®? Want to find other professionals who have used their PCs to solve the same problems you're having?

It's all waiting for you on The Source. In fact, The Source is the online service dedicated to giving you support for your everyday personal computing needs.

Access to America's foremost PC experts

When you join The Source, there are opportunities to communicate online with software developers, PC columnists, reviewers, technical experts and PC users from every walk of life.

Ask questions. Share experiences. Brainstorm. Explore applications. Or create valuable business connections. All you need is a telephone, a PC, a communications software program, and a modem. The Source is compatible with every kind of computer, even portables.

Whether you need help with a new software program you've bought, or just information on who makes the best hard disk for your system, The Source gives you the information...and the community that will make your personal computing more productive at work and at home.

Access to thousands of programs from our software library

Now you can get data base management, wordprocessing, communications, spreadsheet and other software directly from The Source. Via your PC. The only cost to you? Your online time. And thousands of public domain programs are available. So you can get some of the most innovative new programs to try for free using our online "Shareware" system.

And there's more!

PERSONAL COMPUTING An outstanding library of personal computer-related reviews on software, hardware and peripherals. Plus bulletin boards and publications that deal specifically with personal computing.

COMMUNICATIONS Send messages to one person or a hundred via SOURCEMAIL—The Source's easy-to-use electronic mail feature. You can even send messages to people who are not members of The Source via Mailgram® Message Service. Hold online conversations with CHAT, a popular method for pursuing business and personal interests. PARTICIPATE® is a state-of-the-art electronic conferencing tool that allows you to hold productive business meetings online.

BULLETIN BOARDS The Source's online classified exchange. Over 70 categories to choose from. Post messages for other members. Buy and sell items or services. Find other users of The Source with similar interests through the Member Directory.

BUSINESS & INVESTING

Comprehensive investor services including real-time or delayed stock quotes, a powerful portfolio management system, and online execution of stock trades by a discount brokerage firm.† You also have access to extensive databases including The Donoghue Money Letter, investment firm business research, historical stock analyses and Commodity World News—all as close as your computer screen. Dozens of other investment areas are available as well. Ask our customer service staff for details on the offerings in investment areas of particular interest to you.

SPECIAL INTEREST

GROUPS Available at special low connect rates. SIGs give members who share common interests a place to meet, share information or exchange software. Each group has its own members directory, bulletin boards, databases, and file libraries. No matter what your interests, you'll probably find a group to work with on The Source. From Apple or IBM users, to lawyers, science fiction or game enthusiasts. And now The Source offers special professional exchanges, too.

TRAVEL SERVICES Access

to the latest airline schedules and the lowest fares through the Official Airline Guide®, reviews of restaurants and hotels around the world through the Mobil Travel Guide or the ABC Travel Service, and exotic or bargain travel opportunities. Plus, you can book your airline, hotel, and rental car reservations on the spot.

NEWS, WEATHER & SPORTS

Up-to-date information on local, national and international events hot off the wire. Select from United Press International, The Associated Press, Washington Post, Accu-Weather® and other top news services.

The "keyword" search feature lets you review only those news items of interest to you.

EDUCATION, GAMES &

SHOPPING A wide range of services that include The Grolier Academic American Online Encyclopedia, dozens of challenging computer games and a complete computerized catalog offering bargains on everything from electronic equipment to sporting goods. Plus up-to-date movie reviews, horoscopes and much more. An area of The Source that everyone in the family will enjoy visiting.
